

Sexual Exploitation and Abuse (SEA)

KNOW YOUR RIGHTS

Report Sexual Exploitation and Abuse (SEA) by Service Providers.

Sexual Exploitation and Abuse (SEA)

is a crime and must be reported

- It is your right to receive aid or help from organizations or service providers who work in your communities
- If employees of organizations or government working in your community ask for sexual favours or abuse you or someone you know before providing help, they are committing a crime and should be reported to the relevant authorities
- Sexual exploitation and abuse can be perpetrated by the following, but not limited to:
 - - Teachers
 - - Police
 - - Employees of organizations or service providers
 - - Health workers
 - - United Nations staff providing aid in your community.

Assistance is Free!

- No one has a right to demand
 - Money
 - Sex
 - Favours
- You have a right to receive the aid or help organizations or service providers bring to your community,

Report any Sexual Exploitation and Abuse

- Report if someone forces you to pay for the aid and services,
- You can report sexual exploitation and abuse done against you or someone else
- Reporting sexual exploitation and abuse is important..
- Reporting sexual exploitation and abuse will not prevent you from getting assistance.
- All information you will provide when reporting a sexual exploitation and abuse case will be treated with confidentiality.

How to Report Sexual Exploitation or abuse

· You can also report to the following service providers:

- Police emergency line: 999
- Ministry of Education toll-free line: 9664
- SWAGAA: 951/ U-Report: SWAGAA 8500
- Super Buddies Club: +268 2404 8228/
+268 7813 7005
- U-Report: BUDDIES 8500

